

Word Play

- Question 1 What word can go after "open" and before "seed" to give two new phrases?
Sesame
- Question 2 What is the only anagram of the word "stationed"?
Antidotes
- Question 3 Which word is the longest that can be typed using only the top row of letters on a typewriter?
Typewriter
- Question 4 What do the words "canopy", "deft", "laughing", "stupid" and "hijack" have in common?
The all have three consecutive letters which appear consecutively in the alphabet.
- Question 5 What is the only word in the English language, that when capitalised looks the same from the front, back, above and below?
NOON
- Question 6 Which four letter word can go after "Po" or before "Ular" to produce two new words?
Sing
- Question 7 Which word is the longest that can be typed using only the right half of a typewriter?
Lollipop
- Question 8 Which three letter, one syllable word becomes a three syllable word when you add the letter "a" on the end?
Are (becomes Area)
- Question 9 Which word can come before "station" and after "room" to give two new phrases?
Service
- Question 10 What is the only word in the English language that has three consecutive sets of double letters?
Bookkeeper (or Bookkeeping)