

Connections

- Question 1 By what stage name did William Claude Dukenfield achieve fame?

- Question 2 Who received an Oscar nomination for Best Original Song from the film “Live and Let Die”?

- Question 3 Who starred in the title role in the 1968 Film “The Boston Strangler”?

- Question 4 Who narrated the children’s television series “Thomas The Tank Engine And Friends”?

- Question 5 Which author's works included The Pit And The Pendulum and The Raven?

- Question 6 Who received $3.7 million for two weeks work for his part in the 1978 film Superman?

- Question 7 Who, having been an Olympic swimming champion achieved fame in a second career and was famous for his ululating yell?

- Question 8 Whose scandalous affair with Lord Alfred Douglas eventually led to imprisonment?

- Question 9 Which scientist was Time magazine’s “Person of the 20th Century”?

- Question 10 What is the connection between these 9 people?
