

It's Elementary

- Question 1 Which chemical element has the lowest boiling point?
Helium
- Question 2 Which element is associated with old lace?
Arsenic
- Question 3 Which element is most common in the human body?
Oxygen 65% (in all fluids, tissues, bones and proteins)
- Question 4 Which element, formed when seawater comes into contact with electricity, was responsible for the death of many Submariners during the Second World War?
Chlorine
- Question 5 Which element is the best conductor of electricity?
Silver (Copper and Gold are less conductive)
- Question 6 Which element has the chemical symbol S?
Sulphur
- Question 7 How is DiHydrogen Oxide better known?
Water
- Question 8 Which two elements would you find at the centre of the Earth?
Iron and Nickel
- Question 9 Which element would you find providing a nice Blue on an Artist's palette?
Cobalt
- Question 10 Which element was known as the "King of Metals"?
Gold