

Election Fever

- Question 1 In 1992 Neil Kinnock lost the general election and was replaced as leader of the Labour party by whom?
John Smith
- Question 2 Following success at the 1979 election whose party conference speech included the lines 'you turn if you want to, the lady's not for turning'?
Margaret Thatcher
- Question 3 Having returned from a four nation summit in Guadeloupe during the winter of January 1979, who was responsible for the Sun headline 'Crisis, what crisis?'
James Callaghan
- Question 4 Churchill went to the country in the summer of 1945 but was defeated by which Labour leader?
Clement Atlee
- Question 5 Of the 1983 Labour party manifesto Gerald Kaufman famously said it was the 'longest...' what in history?
Suicide Note
- Question 6 Excluding Gordon Brown, 5 people have taken over as prime minister in mid term, only two have failed to win the following election, can you name them?
Alex Douglas Home and James Callaghan
- Question 7 In the run up to the 1997 election, Tony Blair outlined his party's three priorities for office, can you name them?
Education, Education, Education
- Question 8 Satchi and Satchi were responsible for the 1979 Conservative advertising campaign. The most famous poster being of a line of people queuing at the job centre, with what famous strap line?
Labour isn't Working
- Question 9 Before going on to win the 1964 election, who made the 'white heat of technology' speech to their party conference?
Harold Wilson
- Question 10 After defeat at the 1997 general election the Conservative party had a string of leaders before David Cameron, can you name one of them?
William Hague or Iain Duncan Smith or Michael Howard