

The Name is Bond

- Question 1 Michael Bond wrote a series of children's books about a bear from Peru – what was his name?
Paddington Bear
- Question 2 This former BBC royal reporter proved popular with the public, finishing as runner-up in the third series of the reality TV show I'm a Celebrity... Get Me Out of Here! in 2004.
Jenny Bond
- Question 3 The Basildon Bond brand is associated with what products?
Paper or stationery products
- Question 4 Samantha Bond starred as Miss Moneypenny in four James Bond films between 1995 and 2002. She also plays the recurring character of Auntie Angela in which BBC semi-improvised comedy series?
Outnumbered
- Question 5 Flemish, English Cross and Garden Wall are all bonds used in what?
Bricklaying
- Question 6 What colour is Bond Street on a standard Monopoly board?
Green
- Question 7 OK, a James Bond question: how many actors have played James Bond in the 'official' movies?
Seven
- Question 8 Since 1923 the phrase 'My Name is My Bond' (dictum meum pactum in Latin) has been the motto of which City institution, where deals are made with no written pledges and no exchange of documents?
London Stock Exchange
- Question 9 Following that year's April Budget, Alderman Sir Cuthbert Ackroyd, who later became Lord Mayor of London, bought the first what on 1 November 1956?
Premium Bond
- Question 10 Produced between 1970 and 1974, what is a Bond Bug?
Car (3-wheeler)