

Tricky General Knowledge

Question 1 What name was given to privateers, authorized to conduct raids on shipping of a nation at war with France, on behalf of the French crown?

Question 2 In 2002, who filed for divorce from his wife Lisa Marie Presley after being married for just three months?

Question 3 What is the lightest metal under standard conditions?

Question 4 What was the original name of Wembley Stadium?

Question 5 Charles-Å%douard Jeanneret-Gris was better known as who?

Question 6 Which two men are waiting for Godot?

Question 7 In the naval term 'freeze the balls on a brass monkey', what is a brass monkey?

Question 8 Which British aircraft manufacturer produced the Spitfire?

Question 9 What artist designed the logo for Chupa Chups lollipops?

Question 10 In 1944 Helen Duncan was the last case of a woman being tried and convicted in the U.K. for what crime?
