

Driving regulations

(answers verified with Dept of Transport website (Highway code) and the Road Traffic Act (1988))

Question 1 Warning signs are triangular with a red border. They all have an edge on the bottom and a corner on the top, however one sign is inverted, with a corner pointing down. Which one?

Question 2 What does a "minimum speed limit" sign look like

Question 3 What colour signs are used to direct you to tourist attractions

Question 4 What is the maximum speed limit for an HGV over 7.5 tonnes on a UK motorway

Question 5 Which animal is depicted on a warning sign for "wild animals"

Question 6 On a UK motorway, can you legally overtake a vehicle on the left

Question 7 Circular speed limits signs come in 2 sizes. What does the difference mean.

Question 8 What is the maximum speed limit on a motorway for motorhomes or motor caravans of more than 3.05 tonnes maximum unladen weight

Question 9 Is it legal to use your phone to pay for a drive thru

Question 10 If your indicators failed, what is the hand signal for turning left
