

Driving regulations

(answers verified with Dept of Transport website (Highway code) and the Road Traffic Act (1988))

Question 1 Warning signs are triangular with a red border. They all have an edge on the bottom and a corner on the top, however one sign is inverted, with a corner pointing down. Which one?

Give way / stop.

Question 2 What does a "minimum speed limit" sign look like

Circular, blue with white number.

Question 3 What colour signs are used to direct you to tourist attractions

Brown

Question 4 What is the maximum speed limit for an HGV over 7.5 tonnes on a UK motorway

60 mph (increased from 50 mph in 2017)

Question 5 Which animal is depicted on a warning sign for "wild animals"

Deer / stag

Question 6 On a UK motorway, can you legally overtake a vehicle on the left

Yes. Undertaking is permitted in congested conditions when frequent lane changing is not recommended.

Question 7 Circular speed limits signs come in 2 sizes. What does the difference mean.

Larger sign informs you of a change to the limit, whereas small ones are used where there is no change.

Question 8 What is the maximum speed limit on a motorway for motorhomes or motor caravans of more than 3.05 tonnes maximum unladen weight

70 mph (less for towed caravans)

Question 9 Is it legal to use your phone to pay for a drive thru

No. You are using your phone whilst in charge of a vehicle, and could be fined up to £200 & given 6 points. However, using contactless is legal!

Question 10 If your indicators failed, what is the hand signal for turning left Extend right arm and move it in a circular motion. (For right turn,

Driving regulations

keep arm still. For slowing down , move arm up and down)