

Connections

Find the connection between the 10 answers

- Question 1 South African WW2 Officer who organised the escape from stalag III - played by Richard Attenborough in 1963 film "The Great Escape"?
Flight Lieutenant Roger BUSHELL (8 Dry Gallons)
- Question 2 American Actor who played Atticus Finch the lawyer in the 1962 film 'To Kill A Mockingbird'?
Gregory PECK (2 Imperial Gallons - liquid or dry)
- Question 3 Ex-Patriot American Poet, died in 1972, author of "The Spirit of Romance" (1910) ?
Ezra POUND (16 ounces)
- Question 4 British Politician, Labour Leader of the Opposition (1980 - 83) ?
Michael FOOT (12 inches)
- Question 5 In English Football what was created on 20th February, 1992?
The Premier LEAGUE (3 Miles)
- Question 6 Liberal-Democrat MP for Twickenham since 2017, Leader of the Liberal Democrat Party since 20th July, 2017?
Sir Vince CABLE (100 Fathoms)
- Question 7 Crusader fortress in Northern Israel (Holy Land) captured by the Muslims in 1291?
ACRE (43,560 sq feet)
- Question 8 1982 hit single by The Pretenders reaching number 17 in the UK, later appearing in the 1984 album 'Learning to Crawl'?
Back on the CHAIN gang (22 yards)
- Question 9 The common name for fish of the genus Perca, freshwater gamefish belonging to the family Percidae.
PERCH (272.25 sq feet)
- Question 10 What is the connection between the answers of questions 1 to 9
Imperial Measurements