

Simple as ABC

Question 1 "A" was a British Film Certificate classification until 1982. What replaced it, and is still used today

---

Question 2 "B" is the symbol for which chemical element

---

Question 3 "C" is used in science to symbolise capacitance. What is the unit of capacitance.

---

Question 4 "D" was used to signify a pre-decimal penny, with 240 of them in a pound. What did it stand for.

---

Question 5 "E" is the country identifier for vehicle registration plates of which country.

---

Question 6 "F" represents the Fahrenheit temperature scale. On this scale, what is the boiling point of water.

---

Question 7 "The G", is a nickname for a large Australian sports stadium located in Yarra Park. In which city is this stadium.

---

Question 8 "H" is the stage name of a performer with which group

---

Question 9 "I" is represented by which word in the phonetic alphabet

---

Question 10 "J" is a character in a trilogy of hit films. Which actor played J.

---