

Simple as ABC

- Question 1 "A" was a British Film Certificate classification until 1982. What replaced it, and is still used today
PG. "A" stood for Advisory (not Adult). Those aged 5 and older admitted, but not recommended for unaccompanied children under 14 years of age.
- Question 2 "B" is the symbol for which chemical element
Boron
- Question 3 "C" is used in science to symbolise capacitance. What is the unit of capacitance.
Farad
- Question 4 "D" was used to signify a pre-decimal penny, with 240 of them in a pound. What did it stand for.
Denarius (or denarii pulral)
- Question 5 "E" is the country identifier for vehicle registration plates of which country.
Spain
- Question 6 "F" represents the Fahrenheit temperature scale. On this scale, what is the boiling point of water.
212 degrees
- Question 7 "The G", is a nickname for a large Australian sports stadium located in Yarra Park. In which city is this stadium.
Melbourne. (The MCG, Melbourne Cricket Ground)
- Question 8 "H" is the stage name of a performer with which group
Steps. Ian Watkins
- Question 9 "I" is represented by which word in the phonetic alphabet
India
- Question 10 "J" is a character in a trilogy of hit films. Which actor played J.
Will Smith. Agent J in the Men in Black trilogy